

This is an official EMT: Emergency Medical Training Canada Digital Certification Card Printout issued by EMT: Emergency Medical Training Canada. This card may be presented as printed, or it may ONLY be altered in the following manner:

- The card may be trimmed (cut) along the dotted lines indicated with the following symbol: ✂
- The card must be folded along the middle fold line, as indicated, above.
- This card may be laminated as long as both sides of the card are visible through the lamination.

Should there be any question regarding the validity of this digital certification printout, please do not hesitate to contact EMT: Emergency Medical Training Canada immediately by e-mail at info@EMTcanada.ca

This certification is maximally valid for the time period indicated on the certification card. Certification validity is dependent upon the course participant's ability to perform the psychomotor skills effectively and recall and apply the didactic content of the course appropriately. If you, as the certificate holder feel that you unable to adequately perform the skills or apply the learned knowledge from your course, you should no longer consider yourself "certified" and should contact your original training provider for retraining options.
